

Starting an LPFM Radio Station

Written and compiled by Kai Aiyetoro, Director of LPFM
Edited by Kathryn Washington, Director of Operations

Funded by The Ford Foundation
and The John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation

Table of Contents

What is Community Radio?	2
Starting a Station: An Overview
Board of Directors and Its Responsibilities	3
Fundraise Before You Go on the Air!
Developing a Budget
Creating Your Station Departments
General Manager
Programming Department
Operations Department
Development Department
Business Department
On-Air Staff and Volunteers	9
Volunteerism
The FCC: The 300 Pound Gorilla	11
What is a Construction Permit?
Are you MX with other Applications?
Timing
False Claiming of Points
The Process
LPFM Universal Settlements
Equipment Selection	15
Program Department	16
LPFM Broadcast Requirements
Station Music Licensing Obligations
Operations Department	19
LPFM Rules & Regulations
Station Self-Inspection
Public Files
Operating Logs
Call Letters
Program Logs
License Renewal
Emergency Alert System (EAS)

Development Department	24
Press Releases
Advertising the Station
Funding Sources for Your LPFM Station
Are You Ready to Write a Grant Proposal?
Common Grant Applications
Fundraising Avenues
Arts and Humanities Councils
Employee Giving Programs
United Way
Opportunities for Radio
On-Air Fund Drives
Underwriting
Event Planning
Station Products
Business Department	30
Accounts Receivable Accounts Payable
Check Requests
Separation of Accounting Duties
Other Responsibilities
NFCB and the Importance of LPFM	33
Sample Table of Contents	34